

Entrepreneurship Programs

Center for Entrepreneurship at Belmont

(<http://www.belmont.edu/business/entrepreneurship/index.html>)

The Center for Entrepreneurship is designed to prepare those students who believe that they will want to pursue an entrepreneurial career. Named as one of the Top 10 schools in the nation with an emphasis in Entrepreneurship by Entrepreneur Magazine and one of the Top 25 Undergraduate Entrepreneurship Programs in the country by the Princeton Review.

MTSU (<http://frank.mtsu.edu/~entre/>)

The Entrepreneurship Program at MTSU integrates professional areas from throughout the Jennings A. Jones College of Business. Areas of study include communications, marketing, management, economics, finance, accounting, information systems, and research.

Tennessee Technology Development Corporation

(<http://www.tntechnology.org/entrepreneurship/>)

Designed to improve the statewide business climate for innovation and entrepreneurship, TTDC serves as a complement to ongoing business recruitment and expansion efforts of state and local officials. A public-private approach to innovative economic development.

The Kauffman Foundation (<http://www.kauffman.org/>)

Often referred to as one of the largest foundations in the United States and as the world's largest foundation devoted to entrepreneurship, the Kauffman Foundation is working to further understand the phenomenon of entrepreneurship, to advance entrepreneurship education and training efforts, to promote entrepreneurship-friendly policies, and to better facilitate the commercialization of new technologies by entrepreneurs.